VOL. 37—No. 116

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Pennyroyal fair this year cleared $1,500.

Registration day a week from today. Keep it in mind if you want to help elect Wilson.

The total attendance at the Nashville State fair was 81,169, that at the Louisville State fair about 118,000.

Both Presidential candidates were on the stump yesterday, the President at Baltimore and Hughes at Dayton, Ohio.

There are 200 former Kentuckians at Ardmore, Okla., including Lee Cruce, who has been governor of the State.

There are 267 new auto licenses issued last week, 61 of them Fords. Hopkinsville was represented in the list by W. R. Wheeler & Co.

Postmasters are now to be paid $5 each for army recruits they secure. If this doesn't bring in enough, compulsory service it is said will be the next move.

Warren K. Billings, tried for murder of one of the ten deaths caused by a bomb thrown in San Francisco, July 22, was found guilty and given a life sentence.

The State Supreme Court held to be unconstitutional the so-called locker law, which prohibits the maintenance of lockers for bars or buffets in clubs in Tennessee.

A fifteen-year-old girl at Atlanta, a veterinarian's daughter, can rope a mule and operate like a professional. Experience like this ought to make her able to handle a husband without trouble when she gets one.

The widow of the late John C. C. Mayo was remarried Saturday at Ashland, Ky., to Dr. S. C. Fetter, of Portsmouth, O., whom she met in Florida. Her husband will come to Paintsville, Ky., to make his home.

Kiffen Y. Rockwell, born at Newport, Tenn., Sept. 20, 1892, son of a Baptist minister, later of Asheville, N. C., was killed in an air battle in France Saturday. He belonged to the French army corps. He had brought down four German aircrafts in previous fights.

W. L. Messer, of Dellwood, a small town near Marianna, Fla., shot and killed G. C. Horn, principal of Dellwood school, because the teacher whipped Messer's daughter, according to a statement by Messer, who came and surrendered to the sheriff.

Prof. J. A. Dennison and wife, of Boston, were found in the White Mountains near Dixville, N. H., Sunday, after having been lost in the woods four days. They had suffered greatly from the lack of food and loss of sleep. The simple life will have no further attractions for them.

Chas. M. Meacham was one of the speakers at the sixteenth annual banquet of King Solomon's Chapter No. 5, R. A. M. at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Friday night. Covers were laid for 350 and the affair was notable for its elegance and brilliancy. Speeches were made by Mr. John W. Jowett, of Eminence, Ky., Judge, Chas. J. Orbison, of Indianapolis, and Mr. Meacham, whose subject was "Lines and Chapters."

Manager Stockley made a big hit with "The Iron Claw" serial at the Rex, which closed a run of 20 weeks Saturday. It aroused the keenest interest among the boys, who were present in large numbers every Saturday afternoon to cheer the pictures. A crowded house saw the finish when "The Laughing Mask" turned out to be Davy, and Legar came in contact with a bottle of poison and killed himself. Of course Margery and Davy were married. Pearl White as Margery was a great favorite.

TWO ZEPPELS TOLL OF AERIAL RAID

Of 12 Taking Part One Brought Down in Flames, Another Captured.

MANY ENGLISH VICTIMS

Twenty-Eight Dead, 99 Wounded in London—Two Killed, 17 Hurt.

London, Sept. 25.—Of the twelve big Zeppelins which invaded the British Isles Saturday night to deal death and destruction from the skies, two lay stark and black masses of steel and aluminum in the village of Margold, Essex county; They fell victims of the anti-aircraft defenses of London and outlying districts.

One came down a flaming torch, as did the Zeppelin L-21, destroyed three weeks ago, while the second, disabled by gun fire, affected a landing, which saved the lives of the crew who are prisoners in England. The crew of the first raider died in the consuming flames of their own ship, but they were not so terribly charred as their predecessors.

The captain's body was found some distance from the wreck.

The death and burning of the first Zeppelin was witnessed by tens of thousands of London residents, but the wounding and descent of the second raider was a matter of doubt until today's official statements were given out.

TOOK HEAVY TOLL.

The raiders took a heavy toll of lives before their destruction, twenty-eight persons being killed and ninety-nine wounded in the metropolitan district of London. Two persons were killed, probably four, and seventeen were wounded, in the provinces.

The property damage while widely distributed, is confined for the most part to small suburban dwellings and shops, although one railway station was damaged, some empty cars being destroyed and part of the tracks torn up.

AERIAL BATTLES FEATURE.

London, Sept. 25.—Aerial activity, in which two Zeppelins were brought down and more than two score of German, French and British aeroplanes met with disaster in fights in the air, forms the chief news feature of the war, there having been no land battle of great proportions or startling results in any of the various war theaters.

Paris reports that French airmen in battles in the air with the Germans in France have accounted for twenty-six aeroplanes while Berlin records the bringing down of twenty-four entente allied machines 20 of them on the Somme. Five German machines were destroyed by the British Saturday and two others driven down damaged, while five British machines are missing after combats in the air.

On the battle front in France, aside from the repulse of local attacks by both the entente allies and the Germans, violent artillery duels have predominated.

BIG GALICIAN BATTLE.

In Galicia a Russian attack on the upper reaches of the Dniester resulted in a general engagement. North of Zborow the attackers succeeded in entering the trenches of the Teutonic allies, but later, according to both Berlin and Vienna, were driven out suffering sanguinary losses and leaving behind them seven hundred prisoners and even machine guns. Petrograd, however, says that in this region the Russians took prisoner 1,500 Austrians and Germans. In the Carpathians several positions captured recently by the Russians have been retaken by the Teutonic allies.

RUMANIAN FRONTS QUIETER.

In Rumania, the fighting has died down somewhat in the Dobrudja region, while on the Transylvania front an attack by the Rumania on the Vulcan pass, which was repulsed, is the only engagement reported.

At Crofton Sunday Brought Out A Crowd of 2,000.

SPEECHES BY NOTABLES

Messrs. Kincheloe and Fowler Both In Non-Political Speeches.

The reunion of the united fraternal societies of Christian and Hopkins counties Sunday, held at Crofton, turned out to be a big affair, with a crowd present estimated at 2,000.

Prof. Lykens was the chairman of the platform exercises and there was a round of good speeches. The old soldiers held the first place on the program and the address to them was made by Judge W. T. Fowler, Republican nominee for Congress. Then followed the Eastern Star Lodge, represented by Mrs. W. E. Keith, of Crofton, who acquitted herself most handsomely in a historical sketch of the lodge.

The meeting adjourned for dinner and there was a bountiful dinner for all present, provided by the people of Crofton and vicinity.

The Masons and Woodmen of the World appeared first after dinner and the address for them was delivered by Congressman D. H. Kincheloe.

The Woodman Circle of Boys was addressed by Judge W. T. Fowler. The Modern Woodmen of America came next with Claud R. Clark as their spokesman.

The I. O. O. F. lodges came last and were addressed by Rev. Thomas Chapman, pastor of the Universalist church, of this city.

On behalf of the Hopkinsville lodges, C. R. Clark invited the next reunion to come to Hopkinsville. This was supplemented by an invitation from President L. H. Davis, of the H. B. M. A. The next meeting will be held here Sept. 4, 1917.

and isolated infantry engagements have taken place on the Austro-Italian front. Violent Austrian attacks in the Carson region failed, according to Rome, but the Italian war office admits the blowing up of a part of Mt. Cimone by an Austrian mine and the relinquishment of the position by the Italians. Vienna says that 427 prisoners fell into the hands of the Austrians as a result of this operation and that an entire Italian company was buried in the explosion.

NASHVILLE MAN
BUYS STORE

S. Kreisberg Will Conduct Big Establishment in Wilgus Building, E. Ninth St.

S. Kreisberg, of Nashville, Tenn., has purchased the Schwartz Shoe Store on East Ninth street from J. Schwartz. Possession was given at once. The new proprietor is an experienced merchant, and, as soon as the store is enlarged he will add a line of ladies' and men's ready-to-wear goods and also furnishings. He will also add to his shoe stock other lines besides those carried by the Schwartz Shoe Co. The remodeling of the store is already under way and will be finished this week.

Mr. Schwartz will remain in Hopkinsville but he has not yet announced his plans for the future.

BUSY WEEK

At The Jennie Stuart Memorial Hospital.

The Jennie Stuart Hospital is again quite busy with new patients.

Mrs. Richard Boyd underwent a difficult operation Saturday and her condition was satisfactory yesterday.

Mrs. Robt. L. Offutt, formerly Miss Lurline Wadlington, was operated upon a few days ago and is doing well.

Miss Elizabeth Cary was taken to the Hospital yesterday for a slight operation.

Miss Esther Marlow, of Roaring Spring, is there for medical treatment.

Mrs. Wm. Freeman, of Cadiz, and Mrs. G. W. Crowder, of the county, operative patients, and Miss Ruth McKnight, a medical patient for five weeks, will all leave to-morrow.

THE ADAMSON LAW.

Judge Hughes asserts that Wilson should be defeated because of the Adamson law. Seventy republican members of congress, a majority of those voting, voted for this law. Does Judge Hughes say they should be defeated?

LaFollette voted for the Adamson law and then LaFollette appealed to the voters of Wisconsin and was renominated for the senate almost two for one. Does Judge Hughes ask the republicans of Wisconsin to defeat LaFollette?

Judge Hughes asserts that the Adamson law was the result of force and not of reason. What are the facts? President Wilson called both sides to the controversy before him and heard their case. He recommended:

That the eight-hour law go into effect Jan. 1 and that it results be observed by a commission for nine months. At the end of that time they would report to congress and a month after their report the eight-hour law would end. This was the only practicable plan of investigation and getting the facts. Furthermore, it met a condition and averted a strike which would have perhaps been quite as evil as a civil war.

The railroad managers refused to accept this recommendation. So the president appealed to congress and congress, in response to his leadership, gave President Wilson's suggestion the binding force of law. Seventy republican representatives and Senator LaFollette joined with the Democrats. Was this coercion to follow the president's leadership? What his demand that could labor legislation be acted upon before adjournment putting a pistol to the heads of congress? Certainly not. In both cases it was a matter of congress acting on the advice of a chosen leader.—Evansville Courier.
